9 hours

The Mutuals Audit & Governance Professionals Institute's 31st Annual Conference offers a participative and interactive development environment – focusing on areas of strategic and industry relevance to Directors, Finance and Risk professionals, and Auditors working in the mutual space. The conference will also have significant relevance to the many professional firms and businesses that support these organisations.

The conference will be held at the Brisbane Marriott Hotel, Brisbane, Queensland.

The theme of the conference is sustainability, resilience and culture.

The fee entitles each delegate to:

- attendance at all sessions over 1.5 days (Thursday 6th full day / Friday 7th half day).
- morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea on Thursday 6th and morning tea on Friday 7th.
- annual dinner (Thursday 6th) and drinks.

Speakers' presentations will be made available, where possible, to delegates after the conference.

Each delegate will be responsible for their own accommodation and associated costs during their stay in Brisbane.

Dress throughout the conference and dinner is smart casual; no ties necessary.
